April 17th 2016 4th Sunday in Easter - Year C - John 10: 27 - 30

In this week's gospel we read about the Good shepherd. The sheep obey the shepherd because they have experienced that they belong to the shepherd and are known to him who loves and guides them. Good shepherds do not have to wonder "Am I loved?" or "Are the sheep loyal to me"? Not having these worries they can go about their work of leadership in freedom and joy. If we have good relationship with Jesus we will be able to be good shepherds because he has shown us the way. Who are the people in our lives who give us a sense of belonging which enables us to know that we are loved and valued?

Prayer:

Thank you Lord for deep relationships in our lives. We remember the first time we met and immediately felt that we could trust them and grew in confidence and had new belief in ourselves.

Forgive us for the times when we talked down to people in our community because we considered them to be less than ourselves and gave them a sense that they did not belong. Help us to realise that in Jesus we are one with Him and with all creation. Let us listen to his voice and follow him as our good shepherd.
