Gospel Reflections for Lent
5th Sunday in Lent John 8: 1-11 13th. March, 2016

In this Sunday's gospel we see the story of the woman accused of adultery. The Scribes and Pharisees brought her along to Jesus. This woman was guilty of sin they said and were only too ready to judge her and make a show of her in front of Jesus. They were trying to score points against Jesus. They stated that Moses had ordered that this woman be stoned to death. Jesus showed great compassion to the woman and said " If there is one of you who has not sinned, let them cast the first stone at her." " When they heard this they all left. Jesus was alone with the woman. He told her he did not condemn her and with compassion and understanding he said to her " go and sin no more." When were the times in your lives that you felt vulnerable and shamed because you were brought before others and your weaknesses pointed out? How did you feel? Who were the Jesus people who stood with you calmly so that you could find a good space to create a positive life with new belief in yourself?

The Society of St Vincent de Paul wish to remind you that they will take up thier Annual Advocate Collection in Aid of the Sunshine Fund at all Masses next
