In this Gospel we see Jesus speaking openly to his disciples about who they believed him to be. The dialogue between Peter and Jesus establishes clearly that for him as for the rest of the apostles, Jesus was a special person. He is not like “John the Baptist or Elijah or one of the prophets.” Each of us as the Family of Jesus are called to look at the image of Jesus we carry within us – who is he for us? When people look at us especially if we are in Leadership positions who do they say we think God is? Do people understand the love and compassion Jesus has for us all? Lord we thank you for the people who bring the true message of Jesus to us all through their Jesus like thoughts and actions.

Help us to replace our human way of thinking with Gods way of thinking.
Forgive us for the times we were judgemental or held resentment towards people around us.

If you would like to learn more about understanding the Gospels and relating them to our everyday lives why not come along and join our Lectio divina group we meet each Monday morning at 10.45 in the Pastoral Centre.
