33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time. World Day of the Poor 17 November 2024.

A reading from the prophet Daniel. (Dn 12:1-3)

‘At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.’ The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm (Ps 15) R Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize.
 I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety.
 For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay. R

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever. R

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews. (Heb 10:11-14. 18)

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to stand with confidence before the Son of Man. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (Mk 13:24-32)

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven. ‘Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

World Day of the Poor This Sunday is the eight World Day of the Poor. The theme chosen by Pope Francis for this year is from the Book of Sirach 'The prayer of the poor rises up to God' (Sir 21:5) Pope Francis' Message for this World Day of the Poor invites everyone to pay more serious spiritual attention to the poor, who need God and need a human presence – someone who is a concrete sign of listening and closeness to them. In his Message, Pope Francis invites everyone to learn to pray for the poor and to pray together with the poor, with humility and trust. Today is an opportunity to become aware of the presence of the poor in our cities and communities, and to understand their needs. The Pope also mentions the "new poor", those who are victims of violence and wars, which causes many innocent victims.
