Reflection on Sunday's Gospel

The Word of God Does Not Go on Holidays.

16th Sunday Ordinary Time 19th
July, 2015

Mark 6: 30-40

In this week's gospel we see the disciples are very excited telling Jesus and probably each other all they had done on their first special mission. Life was so hectic 'they did not even have time to eat.' Jesus suggests to them that they come away to a deserted place all by themselves and rest a while. It did not go to plan as the crowd were already gathered there because they were so in need of guidance.
They were like sheep without a shepherd. Jesus realised their great need to be listened to and he set himself to teach them at some length. Lord help us to follow the advice of Jesus and listen to the need in ourselves for rest and nourishment but also to respond to the real need of others.
