Crosscare Annual Collection

The Annual Collection for Crosscare the social support agency of the Archdiocese of Dublin will take place at all Masses this weekend It will replace the normal Share Collection. Through their services for Homeless, Youth, Migrants and Refugees, Crosscare focuses on helping people and families when they need it most or when they cant find support anywhere else. In their Community Foodbanks and Cafes they provide food parcels and nutritious meals every day. Demand for their services continues to increase as the pandemic has impacted the most vulnerable in our parishes and communities .

Please give what you can at any of our Masses this weekend or online at www.cossicare.ie or there are white envelopes at in porch for you to post your donations

10am Mass Sunday 19th & 26th September

New Church Attendance Numbers

From Monday 6th September we are allowed to have 50% capacity attending Mass and other ceremonies here in Church so there will be no more draws for weekend Masses and you will not have to wait to receive a text telling you to come to mass at weekend we will have a capacity to seat 350 so everyone who wishes to come to any of our Masses should be able to attend just come along to the mass you normally attend we are delighted we can now accommodate a larger number and from October 22nd we can hopefully have full churches again. Alleluia Alleluia Alleluia !!

We wish all the boys and girls who will receive their 1st Holy Communion and Confirmation here over the next week the very best of luck as they finally get to have their special day

1st Holy Communions will take place here on Monday 20th Sept Tuesday 21st Sept Thursday 23rd Sept and Friday 24th Sept at 10.00am There will be no 9.30am Mass on these days so please do not come to church access will only be allowed to those making 1st Holy Communion and their Guests

Confirmations will take place on Sat 18th Sept Sunday 19th Sept Sat 25th Sept & Sunday 26th Sept all at 10.00am

Wednesday 22nd Sept at 2.30pm

No one can attend these masses only those who are being confirmed and their parents and guests you can of course still watch the ceremonies online
