29th Sunday of Ordinary Time.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah. (Is 53:10-11)

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering. If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done. His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself. The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm (Ps 32:4-5. 18-20. 22)

R May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.

The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield.

May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews. (Heb 4:14-16)

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! The Son of Man came to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (Mk 10:35-45)

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this, they began to feel indignant with James and John, so → Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. The Gospel of the Lord. ← Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

World Mission Sunday

This Mission Sunday we welcome Fr Diarmuid Sheehan (White Fathers) who will celebrate Mass with us on Saturday evening at 7pm and Sunday at 11.30am. We also welcome Bishop Serverus Jjumba, of the Diocese of Masaka, Uganda who will celebrate the 10am Mass in St Judes. World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It takes place in every parish worldwide where the Church is present. The theme for this year's celebration of Mission Sunday is: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet" (Mt 22:9). reflecting the inclusive and urgent call to bring God's love to everyone.

Second Collection – The Mission Sunday appeal is the 2nd collection at all Masses this weekend and replaces the Share collection. Mission Appeal envelopes are available in the porches for anyone who may wish to make a donation later in the week.
