Lenten Gospel Reflections
2nd Sunday Lent 2016 -
Year C

Luke 9: 28-36

In this weeks gospel we see Jesus taking his three followers up to the mountain to pray. This is a symbol of the withdrawal that must take place before we can be transfigured. We see that the change occurred as Jesus was praying and then we see the two men talking to Jesus about his passion. It was while the apostles were covered with a cloud that they experienced the glory of Jesus through a heavenly voice. Were there times in our lives when we felt that there was a great cloud between us and God?
Then during our prayers we became transfigured and realised Jesus was there all the time?

Next Weekend 27th/28th Feb the Church Gate collection will be in aid of
