Question Time?

Q. When Jesus spoke about the Kingdom of God was he referring to heaven or to life here on earth?

A. The kingdom is the central theme of the mission of Jesus in the Gospels or Mark and Matthew. Sometimes it refers to life with God in heaven, sometimes to the church community, but most often to the establishment of God's reign on earth, overcoming the power of evil in the world. Jesus began his mission with the proclamation that the kingdom of God is at hand. To that end he called people to repent and believe, that is, to leave wrongdoing behind and to follow his way. The apostles, we are told, left everything and followed him.

Radharc Films .

Throughout 2012 Radhard Films will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of the screening of its first film on 12th Jan 1962. During that time they produced a range of provocative, sometimes humorous and always informative films on social, political and religious issues. The Irish Film Institute has very kindly reserved their January lunchtime Archive Programme for the screening of some of these films. The tickets are FREE for these screenings. Simply collect your tickets at the IFI Box Office. For full details on the programmes see www.dublindiocese.ie
