Family Fun Day

Our thanks go to the whole organising team and all who participated at last Sunday's Family Fun Day, ensuring that everyone had a really enjoyable time.

Bouncy castles and the delightful music by St. James's Brass and Reed Band greatly added to the occasion, as did the Vintage Fire Engine.

The local Willington Scouts operated the B-B-Q and we are extremely grateful to them and to Brady's Butchers and SuperValu who kindly provided the food, and to the Cosy Corner Café for the refreshments.

The Motte and Baileys Castle exhibition and the Photographic Show in Bishop Galvin and Bishop Shanahan school halls were wonderful, and everyone was impressed with the schools' new shared building, which was open for viewing.

Finally, the presence of St. John Ambulance and An Garda Síochána, was also appreciated.
