22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Eucharistic Congress Bell will arrive in our parish at 11.30 on Tuesday 13 September next. Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Walsh to mark the occasion. The Bell is a key symbol of the 50th International Eucharistic Congress. The purpose of the pilgrimage of the Bell is to invite people to deepen their communion with Christ and with one another. The Bell will be with us until 8.30 am on 14 September. During its visit it will be brought to our schools, go to Greenhills Parish, and will be a call to parishioners to a prayer vigil with Adoration on Tuesday evening and night. Details are being finalised and will be included in future newsletters and on notices in the Church porch

Please put the 13th September in your diary and join us on the day to pray for the success of the Congress.

Baptismal Course
our next Baptismal Course will take place on Monday next 29th August at 7pm in room 1 of Pastoral Centre for the parents of all babies who will be baptised here during the month of Sept.

Good Luck to all our young people who are starting or returning to school this week

28th Aug 2011

Introduction of the New Roman Missal
The Third Edition of the Roman Missal will come into full use in Ireland on the 1st Sunday of Advent
In order to familiarize ourselves with the changes in the prayers and responses we have printed handouts which will be available over the next few weeks we would encourage you to take one home each week and read and familiarize yourself with the changes. Full details of the changes can be found on our parish website www.stjudesparish.net

CHANGE IN MASS TIMES
5pm Sunday Evening Mass
Due to the small numbers attending the 5pm Mass on Sunday evening we have decided to discontinue this Mass

Sunday Evening Mass is available in our neighboring parishes
Mount Argus 4pm
Greenhill's 5.30pm
Crumlin 7pm
