Lenten Gospel Reflections

3rd Sunday in Lent. Luke 13: 1-9

In part 1 of this weeks gospel we read about two tragic incidents. First Pilate murdering a group of Galileans as they were offering sacrifice in the temple and a tower falling and killing eighteen people. In the second part we have the parable of the man who had a fig tree in his vineyard and came looking for fruit on it but the tree had none. He complained to the man who looked after the vineyard that after three years there was no fruit so "cut it down". The man replied "leave it for one more year and I will dig around it and give it manure, and if the it does not bear fruit you can cut it down. How do we react when we see tragic events in our papers or on the television especially in a religious setting? In our feelings of uselessness who would be of most help to us 'the owner' or the one who looked after the vineyard? Why?

We welcome into our Christian Community the following children who were baptised here during February

Aibhe Joan Dargan
Milo Thomas Saunders
Laura Teresa Mc Nulty
Jodi Maeve Dore
