REFLECTION

22nd Sunday Ordinary Time – Year B
30th August 2009

This gospel contains several sayings of Jesus. He speaks of people who honour him with lip service while their hearts are far from him. The worship they offer is worthless; the doctrines they teach are only human regulations. He also says nothing that goes into a person from outside can make them unclean; it is the things that come out of a person makes them unclean. Jesus is asking us to look at the motives for each of our actions. These motives come from our heart and are known only to us and to Jesus. We cannot pull the wool over the eyes of Jesus even if we try. Lord forgive us for the times when we become set in our ways and become judgemental to the actions of others because they were different and do not keep our laws. Help us to recognise the goodness in your people and to open our hearts to all especially those who feel marginalised. Help us to follow your teachings not mere human regulations. Thank you for the people who Jesus sent us to open our minds and hearts to all with compassion and love and to realise that Jesus is at work within us.
