Walk for Katie

Katie is a little 6 year old girl who was diagnosed with a large tumor on her kidney in early February resulting in her having to have Chemotherapy to try and shrink the tumor before she had her kidney and tumor removed earlier this month she is now going through Radiation and more Chemo but surgeons are hopeful that they removed all the tumor a lot of you may know Ciara Katie's mum who worked in Precious Hairdressers and her Nannie Catherine works in our Cosy Corner Cafe as a result of Katie having to spend so much time going back and forth to hospital Ciara has had to take a year off work.

On Sunday 10th April some of the Staff in both Precious Hairdressers and the Cosy Corner are doing a sponsored walk up Killiney Hill to raise funds to help with Katie's Medical Expenses and help her family defray some of their household bills if you would like to donate to this fund we will have a box in the parish office

The Cosy Corner Cafe on Friday the 9th April will donate all proceeds from the sale of Coffee's and Teas in Cosy Corner Cafe to

Walk for Katie

Please continue to keep Katie and her family in your prayers
