Jo Culhane
Speaker at I.E.C.

We send our Best Wishes to one of our parishioners Jo Culhane who has been chosen to conduct one of the workshops at the Eucharistic Congress in RDS on Tuesday 12th June Jo's topic is The Catecheses of the Good Shepherd which is a method of religious instruction for children from 3-12 years. The children learn about their Catholic faith in a hands-on and joy-filled way using rich materials If you are planning on going to the RDS during the congress week please try and take in Jo's talk as we are sure she would love to see some familiar faces there .

We wish Jo all the best for her workshop in RDS.
Jo workshop will take place from 10am to 11am in Hall 5B

Sincere thanks to all who returned their Trocaire Boxes to Parish the sum collected here amounted to €3176

to Fr Paul Ludden who was ordained to the priesthood for the Dublin Diocese this Saturday 2nd April

Ordination of Deacons
Next Monday 4th June Archbishop Diarmuid Martin will ordain eight permanent deacons for ministry in the Archdiocese of Dublin The eight candidates have been preparing for this voluntary ordained ministry for the past four years .One of these eight men Gerry Larkin is one of our own parishioners here in St Jude's and we would like to take this opportunity to wish Gerry & his fellow deacons all the best for their future ministry . We have invited Gerry to come and assist at Mass and give the Homily here in St Jude's on Sunday 10th June we hope as many of Gerry's neighbours and friends here in St Jude's will join us for our 12pm Mass
