27th Sunday of Ordinary Time. 6 October 2024.

A reading from the book of Genesis. (Gen 2:18-24)

The Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate.' So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them; each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed: 'This at last is bone from my bones, and flesh from my flesh! This is to be called woman, for this was taken from man.' This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body.
The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 127)

R May the Lord bless us all the days of our life.

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!
 By the labour of your hands you shall eat. You will be happy and prosper. R

Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house;
 your children like shoots of the olive, around your table. R

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
 May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem all the days of your life!
 May you see your children's children. On Israel, peace! R

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews. (Heb 2:9-11)

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind. As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers. The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.
Alleluia, alleluia! Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark. (Mk 10:2-16) (For Shorter Form, read between → ←).

→ Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said, 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.'

Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them, 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.' ←

People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Synod on Synodality Year 2, which is being held in Rome, started this week and will continue until the 27th October. It represents the next stage in the process of listening and discerning what God wants from us, His People, in the world of today. The first session of the Synod on Synodality last October described what a synodal Church looks like, emphasising the spirituality and principles that underpin synodality. The Instrumentum Laboris (the working document, which is available at www.synod.va), for the second session of the Synod, has as its focus the 'how' of 'becoming a missionary synodal Church'. It will be the task of the Synod to outline how we are to become a truly missionary people.

Each week during the month of October a Synodal Newsletter, prepared by the Archdiocesan Synod Animation Team will be prepared and made available for parishioners. Copies of the first weekly newsletter are available in the church porches and can also be accessed on our parish website.
