Lectio divina

As we go into a new year for learning and new experiences that we hope will give us new life and hope in these often hopeless times I would like to invite you to our weekly meetings on Lectio Divina which are held each Monday morning at 10.45 in the Parish Centre. At these meetings we take the gospel of the next Sunday and relate it to our lives. We read, meditate and pray each gospel and find ourselves situated in the story – e.g. at the well or on the boat in the storm. We might find ourselves being blocked by a stone which is preventing our freedom as the stone at the tomb before the Resurrection. We realise that each of us has a sacred story and we start our week experiencing the Good News of the gospel and bringing it into our daily lives which is really a great help. Jesus said "Do not be afraid everything that is covered will be uncovered and everything that is hidden will be made clear". Matthew 10:26-33. He is very much with us in this time of purification for all. Lectio Divina (Divine reading) helps us to get to KNOW JESUS not just learn ABOUT HIM. If you feel you would like to experience new life you would be most welcome to our meeting. It takes about one hour. If this time does not suit you please leave your name and telephone number in the office and I will phone you.

WELCOME

We extend a very warm welcome to our new priest Fr. Gregory O'Brien. Fr Gregory will replace Fr. Michael O'Grady who has now entered Glenstal Abbey.

Are you 65+ years of age? Have you a small repair job which you would like to have done for you? The Care and Repair programme (run by Age Action Ireland) uses a pool of trustworthy volunteers and handypersons to carry out minor repairs for older people. All volunteers are vetted and carry official Care and Repair identification cards. The service is free; you only pay for the materials used (though donations are welcome). For your bigger jobs, we maintain a register of reliable and honest tradespersons. You can arrange to have a job done for you by phoning the Age Action Care and Repair number which is 1890 369 369.
