TCD Research Study – Help required

Adult volunteers, 60 years and above, are sought to participate in a research study investigating navigational skills. Participants will be required to fill in a questionnaire and then navigate their way through a three-dimensional computer generated urban environment. The study takes place in Trinity College Dublin and is being supervised by Dr Michael Gormley (parishioner) who is a psychology lecturer in TCD. All participants will receive €10 to compensate them for their time. If you are interested please contact Giuseppina at giuseppina.spano@uniba.it for further details. To be eligible to participate you will need to have no history of epilepsy, vertigo or motion sickness

KNOW YOUR FAITH Come to PATHWAYS: EXPLORING FAITH AND MINISTRY
An Adult Faith Development Programme

The programme begins this year in Clonliffe College on Thursday 28th. September 2017 (7.00p.m. – 9.30 p.m.). Booking is now open. Places are limited so early application is advisable Pathways is a two-year one night a week course for adults of all ages wish to explore their faith. It runs from late September to May each year. There are no exams and no written work. The only requirement is an openness to listening to others and to participate. You can just come along and enjoy!
The cost is €400 for the coming year which may be paid in instalments. Some sponsorship may be available for those of limited means.
