CHURCH REOPENING

New Government guidelines on return to Mass will come into effect from May 10th we are allowed to have 2 pods of 45 with social distancing in place

Under these new guidelines we have decided to do away with the Monday to Friday tickets and will allow the 1st 90 people to come along each day we hope this will allow as many of you who wish to come to mass at least one day a week to do so we would ask that you do not start queuing outside doors before 9.15 as we will have to sanitise church each morning before you come in and after you leave. We ask for your co-operation in moving up to the front and filling the seats designated for you to sit on. We would also hope that people will not come early just to get in every day leaving no spaces for others Please do as the stewards ask you the church doors will close once, we are at 90 each day which is our capacity

Weekend Masses

We will go back to drawing out names for weekend masses as we have more than 90 looking to come to each Mass priority will be given to those who have months minds and 1st anniversaries booked already so if you have a mass booked for May or June please let me know if you wish to reserve spaces at any of the masses you have booked if you can send your requests by email to judesparishoffice1@gmail.com we will do our best to accommodate your requests looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible over the next few weeks.

Face masks must be worn at all times in Church and we ask you to come and go as quickly as possible no gathering in groups outside permitted.

If you wish to register to go on the lists for our weekend masses please send email with contact number and mass time you wish to attend if you were on our lists before you do not have to register again you will receive a text or phone call on the Friday if you are drawn to come to any of our weekend masses

Requests for candles to be lit at mass as church is now open for you to attend mass we would ask that if possible you come in and light candles yourself so that the mass will just be offered for those who have booked masses
